MAUI COUNTY OFFICERS READY TO BEGIN WORK

Waikuku, Jan. 2.—All Maui is anxiously awaiting the decision of the Superior Court in the case of the Territorial officials, that is, those affected by the new law, are ready to hand over to their successors in office next Monday.

A few of the Home Rulers have not yet succeeded in obtaining their bonds. P. Cockett, treasurer, whose bond is fixed at $65,000, needs $15,000 more, but he is really indifferent about the matter, being very loth to give up his present sure position at Waikuku ranch for a political and uncertain office.

The Kepoikai building, corner Market and Maui streets, will be engaged by the Board of Supervisors, Treasurer and County Clerk. The other officials will be housed elsewhere as the Kepoikai building is not large enough to accommodate all. No plans have been made by Home Rulers to celebrate their inauguration.
